To Whom It May Concern,

Greg's unique ability to quickly adjust his writing styles to focus on the ever-changing needs of a high-tech product manufacturing company gave our Marketing Team an edge in meeting tightly packed deadlines. When Greg took on an assignment I knew he would meet the deadline with a positive attitude and great content that would keep a reader interested. Additionally, Greg cheerfully took on the task of updating FLIR's web content -- the project was completed quickly and with great attention to detail.

Sincerely,
Peter Stack
Marketing Manager
